Selecting a present during the holiday season can be complicated but we've made your holiday shopping easier with our hand-selected list of holiday gifts. Who, what and where of holiday shopping!

FOR THE DESIGNER
Stainless Steel Wallet

Slim, functional and fashionable, this wallet is made by weaving 25,000 flexible, stainless steel treads together. We tested it ourselves and after two months of use, the strong as steel 4 1/4" by 4 1/3" money holder hasn't stretched or stained nor was it affected by the salty air at the beach, which is more than I can say for my husband's drill bits. Perfect for the man who likes to carry his stash in the front or back pocket. $89.95 • Hammacher Schlemmer, 147 E. 57th St. 800-421-9002

FOR THE IPHONE OBSESSED
Recharge with Solar Power

It's no doubt that New Yorkers love Apple. Now you can talk, Twitter and rock out longer with Novothink's solar powered Surge cases made for iPhone 3G and 3G(S) and second-generation iPod touch. The "durable, lightweight hard-shell construction with soft-touch grip side sections" replaces your old case with an eco-friendly version that allows you to power up while walking around the city, biking or vacationing at the beach. Available in a variety of colors, $69.95. • www.novothink.com

FOR ADVENTURESS FOODIES
Rum & Blackbird Tasting Tours of Hell's Kitchen

Instead of gathering in a restaurant this holiday season, walk and eat your way through Hell's Kitchen with food savvy Moira Campbell. Former restaurant publicist and Culinary Institute of American alum, Campbell leads tasting tours through the neighborhood she loves the best. During a guided three-hour, 1.8 mile tour you'll sample cuisine from "hidden mom-and-pop shops that never make it to the Food Network" including Druse food from Israel, Columbian empanadas, and delicious homemade Greek pastries. Thursday–Sunday 11:30am–2:30pm and 3pm–6pm, $49.00 includes all food, drinks extra. • Reserve through Zerve at 212-209-3370 or www.rumandblackbird.com

FOR EVERY MAN'S WARDROBE
SARAR's Stylish Sport Jacket

For the man who looks forward to the changing seasons and embraces adding a coveted piece or shoe to his wardrobe, SARAR has created a one-of-a-kind zipped-in lapel sport jacket for you. Constructed from fabric manufacturer Lanificio Di Pray 1948 in a brown and tan gingham print, the wool Super'110 wool jacket features unique leather and suede
